Righi Collection Award

Currently consisting of over a thousand museum-sized works, the Righi collection, one of Italy's most important private collections of contemporary art, is active in the public and community sphere. For over thirty years, it has supported both the work of artists (and of galleries) as well as the demands of public institutions.

It has formed collaborations with Museion in Bolzano (which has a warehouse of works from the collection) as well as the co-production of projects included in international exhibitions such as the Venice Biennial of Art and documenta. The collection has also been exhibited in museums such as the Collection Lambert in Avignon, Museion in Bolzano, Castello di Rivoli in Turin, Grand Palais in Paris, and Palazzo Fortuny in Venice.

The aim of the Righi Collection Award is to acquire a work at Arte Fiera that will be added to the collections of MAMbo - Museo d'arte moderna e contemporanea di Bologna, with specific focus on the work of recent generations of Italian artists.

Jury: Lorenzo Balbi, Director of Modern and Contemporary Art Area, Istituzione Bologna Musei, Andrea Viliani, Director of Museum of Civilizations, Bart van der Heide, Director of MUSEION.
